

PRIVACY STATEMENT

We know you are concerned about your privacy, and The Chemours Company LLC and its affiliates (“Chemours”) are too, and we want you to be familiar with how we collect, use and disclose information. Together with Chemours’ Global Information Privacy Policy, this Privacy Statement describes Chemours practices in connection with information that we collect through the website or mobile application owned and controlled by Chemours from which you are accessing this Privacy Statement (respectively, the “Site” and the “App”), as well as offline where notice is legally required. By providing Personal Information to Chemours, you agree to the terms and conditions of this Privacy Statement.

This Privacy Statement does not apply to personal information collected for employment-related purposes, which are addressed by a separate privacy notice.

Chemours is committed to working with you to obtain a fair and rapid resolution of any questions or concerns you might have regarding this Privacy Statement or our collection or use of your personal information. Please contact us at Privacy-office@chemours.com. We provide additional information about your choices, rights, and options in the Choices / Options / Control of Your Personal Information section, below.

WHAT WE MEAN BY “PERSONAL INFORMATION”

“Personal Information” is information that identifies you as an individual or that can be used to identify you when combined with other available information about you. We collect Personal Information when you interact with us online and participate in various opportunities that we provide. We may combine Personal Information that we collect about you with Personal Information you provide to Chemours through other sources, such as product registrations, inquiries or marketing events. We will use the combined Personal Information in accordance with this Privacy Statement for as long as it is combined.

Additional Information

HOW WE COLLECT PERSONAL INFORMATION FROM AND ABOUT YOU

- When we conduct market research, meet you at a trade show or other event
- When you provide your personal details to our Investor Relations team
- When you visit one of our locations and must establish your identity to gain access
- Through your browser
- Using cookies

Additional Information

HOW WE USE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

Chemours uses your Personal Information for four basic purposes: To fulfil your requests; complete purchase or selling contracts; to operate our business and improve your online experience; to comply with legal obligations.

Additional Information

WHO WE SHARE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION WITH, AND WHY

Except to the extent necessary to fulfill our business obligations as described in this Privacy Statement, or to accomplish a disclosure requested or authorized by you based on your express advance consent, we do not sell, transfer, or otherwise disclose the personal information we collect from and about you.

We share your personal information as necessary to complete any transaction that you have requested or authorized. In addition, we share Personal Information among Chemours affiliates and subsidiaries and with vendors or agents working on our behalf for the purposes described in this statement.

Additional Information

CHOICES / OPTIONS / CONTROL OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

Your choices regarding Chemours' use and disclosure of your Personal Information

Chemours gives you many choices regarding Chemours' use and disclosure of your Personal Information for marketing purposes. We will only use your Personal Information for marketing purposes with your prior consent.

Additional Information

Subject Access Requests

How you can access, change or suppress your Personal Information

If you would like to review, correct, update, suppress, delete or otherwise limit Chemours use of your Personal Information that has been previously provided to Chemours, you may contact the Chemours Inquiry Management Center.

Additional Information

Raising a Complaint

Chemours is committed to resolving complaints about our collection or use of your personal information. Individuals with inquiries or complaints regarding our Privacy Statement are encouraged to first contact Chemours at Privacy-Office@chemours.com. You may also contact the Data Protection Authority / Supervisory Authority in the country of your habitual residence or place of work. A list from the International Conference of Data Protection & Privacy Commissioners can be found here: <https://icdppc.org/participation-in-the-conference/list-of-accredited-members/>.

OTHER IMPORTANT PRIVACY INFORMATION

Security

Chemours uses reasonable organizational, technical and administrative measures to protect Personal Information under Chemours control.

Unfortunately, no data transmission over the Internet or data storage system can be guaranteed to be 100% secure. If you have reason to believe that your interaction with Chemours is no longer secure (for example, if you feel that the security of any account you might have with Chemours has been compromised), please immediately notify Chemours of the problem by contacting Chemours in accordance with the "Contacting Chemours" section below.

Retention Period

We will retain your Personal Information for the period necessary to fulfill the purposes outlined in this Privacy Statement, to perform a service you have requested, or for which you have given consent, or such longer retention period as is required for our business purposes and applicable law.

Cross Border Transfers

Your Personal Information may be stored and processed in any country where we have facilities or where we have engaged a service provider, and by using Chemours' Site or App you consent to the transfer of information to countries outside of your country of residence, including to the United States, which may have different data protection rules than in your country. Such transfers are governed by internal Controller to Controller contracts between Chemours legal entities, and through Data Transfer agreements with nonaffiliated third parties.

Transfers of EU Personal Data to the United States

When required these transfers of EU personal data to the U.S. are also protected by Chemours through Privacy Shield certification and by its use of EU Standard Contractual Clauses when transferring EU personal data to entities and individuals who do not have Privacy Shield certification or a similar EU-compliant data transfer mechanism already in place.

Sensitive Information

Unless legally required, we ask that you not send Chemours, and you not disclose, any sensitive Personal Information -- information related to racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, trade union membership, health, or sex life or sexual orientation -- on or through the Site or App or otherwise to Chemours.

Use of Site by Children

Chemours is committed to protecting the privacy needs of children and we encourage parents and guardians to take an active role in their children's online activities. Chemours does not target the Site or the App to children less than sixteen (16) years of age or collect information from children for the purpose of selling products or services. Chemours does participate in select educational programs such as science and environmental awareness in support of schools and communities.

IP Addressess

Your "IP Address" is a number that is automatically assigned to the computer that you are using by your Internet Service Provider (ISP). An IP Address is identified and logged automatically in Chemours server log files whenever a user visits the Site. Chemours uses IP Addresses to monitor site usage and enhance your online experience. When you visit or leave our Services (including our plugins or cookies or similar technology on the sites of others), we receive the URL of both the site you came from and the one you go to next. We also get information about your IP address, proxy server, operating system, web browser and add-ons, device identifier and features, and/or ISP or your mobile carrier. If you use our Services from a mobile device, that device may send us data about your location. Most devices allow you to prevent location data from being sent to us and we honor your settings.

Internet-based Advertising

Chemours and Chemours third party service providers use cookies, pixel tags, web beacons, clear GIFs or similar technologies to track the actions of Site users and email recipients across non-affiliate websites over time, in order to personalize your experience on the Site by presenting advertisements that are more relevant to you.

Additional Information

UPDATES TO THIS PRIVACY STATEMENT

We may change this Privacy Statement. Please take a look at the revision date on this page to see when this Privacy Statement was last revised. Any changes to this Privacy Statement will become effective when we post the revised Privacy Statement on the Site or App. Your use of the Site or App following these changes means that you accept the revised Privacy Statement.

HOW WE USE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

Chemours uses your Personal Information for four basic purposes: To fulfil your requests; complete purchase or selling contracts; to operate our business and improve your online experience; to comply with legal obligations.

Additional Information

Purposes pursuant to fulfilment of an agreement or pre-contractual measures

- When it is necessary for the performance of a contract or to fulfill your request.
- Respond to your inquiries and fulfill your requests, such as to send you e-mail alerts.
- Complete and fulfill your purchase, for example, to process your payments, have your order delivered to you, communicate with you regarding your purchase and provide you with related customer service.
- To send you important information regarding the Site or App, changes to Chemours' terms, conditions, and policies and/or other administrative information.
- Personalize your experience on the Site by presenting products and offers tailored to you.
- Allow you to participate in sweepstakes, contests and similar promotions and to administer these activities. Some of these activities have additional rules, which could contain additional information about how we use and disclose your Personal Information, so we suggest that read these rules carefully.
- Permit you to send messages to another person or friend through the Site or App. By using this functionality, you are telling Chemours that you are entitled to use and provide Chemours with the other person's name and email address.
- Allow you to communicate and interact with others through the Site or App (for example, through a blog, message board, messaging functionality, chat functionality, profile or other social media).
- Permit you to register and participate in technology forums and other events with Chemours.

Purposes within the framework of a legitimate interest on our part or of third parties

- Above and beyond the actual fulfilment of the (pre-)agreement, we process your data whenever this is necessary to protect legitimate interests of our own or of third parties. Your data shall only be processed to the extent that you do not have any overriding interests against such processing such as in particular for the following purposes.
- When the processing is necessary for our legitimate interests to enhance our services, campaigns and website.
- To enable Chemours business purposes, such as data analysis, audits, researching and developing new products, enhancing Chemours' website, improving Chemours' services, developing marketing events, identifying usage trends and determining the effectiveness of Chemours' promotional campaigns. If possible, we will use anonymized data for these purposes, but in the event we use or combine it with Personal Information we will treat it in accordance with this Privacy Statement for as long as it contains Personal Information.

- To secure access to our systems and facilities.
- Chemours uses IP Addresses for purposes such as calculating Site usage levels, helping diagnose server problems, administering the Site and presenting content that is tailored to your country.

Purposes within the framework of your consent

- With your consent. You have the right to withdraw your consent at any time (<http://pages.chemours.com/Subscription-Center.html>).
- Send you marketing communications that we believe may be of interest to you, including information about trade shows, when you have opted-in to receive such communications.

Purposes within the framework of compliance with a legal obligation

- As we believe to be necessary or appropriate: (a) under applicable law, including laws outside your country of residence; (b) to comply with legal process; (c) to respond to requests from public and government authorities including public and government authorities outside your country of residence; (d) to enforce Chemours terms and conditions; (e) to protect Chemours operations; (f) to protect Chemours rights, privacy, safety or property, you or others; and (g) to allow Chemours to pursue available remedies or limit the damages that we may sustain; (h) if we think it's necessary for security purposes or to investigate possible fraud or other violations of this Privacy Policy and/or attempts to harm our business or Visitors.
- When processing is necessary to comply with a legal obligation.

WHO WE SHARE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION WITH, AND WHY

Except to the extent necessary to fulfill our business obligations as described in this Privacy Statement, or to accomplish a disclosure requested or authorized by you based on your express advance consent, we do not sell, transfer, or otherwise disclose the personal information we collect from and about you.

We share your personal information as necessary to complete any transaction that you have requested or authorized. In addition, we share Personal Information among Chemours affiliates and subsidiaries and with vendors or agents working on our behalf for the purposes described in this statement.

Additional Information

Disclosures to Third Parties Based on Your Consent or Express Request+

- When you participate in features on a Chemours Site, social media platform or App that provide the opportunity to interact with Chemours and with others (for example a blog, message board, messaging functionality, chat functionality, profile or other social media), you should be aware that any information that you submit, including your name, location and e-mail address, may be publicly available to others. We are not responsible for any information you choose to submit through these features and we strongly discourage you from disclosing any sensitive Personal Information (such as health or credit card information) through these features. If you use these features, your Personal Information may remain on the Site or App even after you cease use of the Site or App.
- To identify you to anyone to whom you send messages through the Site or one of our social media accounts.

Disclosures to our Affiliates and Subsidiaries

- Within the Chemours Group of Companies for the purposes described in this Privacy Statement. The Chemours Company and the local affiliate with whom you are interacting are jointly responsible for the management of the jointly-used Personal Information.

Disclosures to Third-Party Service Providers Acting on Our Behalf

- To Chemours' third party service providers who provide services such as website hosting, data analysis, payment processing, order fulfillment, product distribution, infrastructure provision, IT services, customer service, email delivery services, location security, credit card processing, auditing services and other similar services to enable them to provide services.
- To third parties such as agents and distributors to facilitate the sale and distribution of Chemours products and services which may include marketing communications.
- To third parties sponsors of sweepstakes, contests and similar promotions.

- To a third party in the event of any reorganization, merger, sale, joint venture, assignment, transfer or other disposition of all or any portion of Chemours business, assets or stock (including in connection with any bankruptcy or similar proceedings).

Disclosures for Other Legal and Business Purposes

- As we believe to be necessary or appropriate: (a) under applicable law, including laws outside your country of residence; (b) to comply with legal process; (c) to respond to requests from public and government authorities including public and government authorities outside your country of residence; (d) to enforce Chemours terms and conditions; (e) to protect Chemours operations; (f) to protect Chemours rights, privacy, safety or property, you or others; and (g) to allow Chemours to pursue available remedies or limit the damages that we may sustain.

Your choices regarding Chemours' use and disclosure of your Personal Information

Chemours gives you many choices regarding Chemours' use and disclosure of your Personal Information for marketing purposes. We will only use your Personal Information for marketing purposes with your prior consent.

Additional Information

By contacting the Chemours Inquiry Management Center, you may opt-out from receiving future electronic marketing messages from Chemours and request that we not share your Personal information with unaffiliated third parties for their marketing purposes.

We will respond to your request(s) as soon as reasonably practicable. Please note that if you opt-out as described above, we will take reasonable steps to inform unaffiliated third parties with which Chemours has already shared your Personal Information of the removal of your consent (i.e., to which we have already provided your Personal Information as of the date that we implement your opt-out request). Please also note that if you do opt-out of receiving marketing-related messages from Chemours, we may still send you important administrative messages, and you cannot opt-out from receiving administrative messages.

Global Information Privacy Policy

This policy defines the commitment of Chemours to protect the privacy of personal information that is collected or used by Chemours in the course of conducting Chemours business. The scope of this Policy includes the collection and use of employee, customer, supplier and other third party personal information. On a global basis, Chemours will, and will cause its affiliates to, establish and maintain business procedures that are consistent with this policy.

We respect the privacy rights of individuals.

Chemours takes privacy seriously and is committed to complying with all legal requirements regarding the privacy of personal information. Chemours will, from time to time, review its personal information collection, use, and disclosure practices in order to assure compliance with laws and regulations.

We give notice of Personal Information collection.

Chemours will give notice when personal information is collected consistently with applicable law. All notices will explain the need for the information and describe how the information will be used.

We get explicit consent for sensitive information/opt-in.

To the extent required by applicable law, Chemours will maintain procedures to assure that sensitive information is collected with explicit consent.

We process and distribute information consistent with notice.

Chemours will collect and use personal information consistent with the notices that have been provided. However, Chemours may decide to remove identifiable features from collected personal information and the resulting information may then be used for statistical, historic, scientific or other purposes, consistent with applicable law.

We provide information security.

Chemours will use commercially reasonable efforts to maintain the security of personal information, and protect the integrity of such information.

We provide individuals a way to access and correct their information.

Chemours will maintain commercially reasonable procedures consistent with applicable law for individuals to gain access to their collected personal information and, when appropriate, correct any information that is inaccurate or incomplete, or have their personal information deleted.

We require others who process Chemours data to comply with applicable law.

Chemours will require others who acquire or provide personal information from or to Chemours, including those engaged to provide support services, to appropriately protect personal information.

We provide a way to process complaints.

Chemours will publish the procedures for responding to complaints regarding potential deviations from its established procedures for protecting personal information.

We will disclose Personal Information when required by Law or court order.

Chemours will as permitted or required by law or court order, collect, use, transfer and/or disclose personal information pursuant to procedures that do not require giving notice (for example, in connection with law enforcement investigations).

We will align our Human Resource processes with the Chemours policy.

Chemours will align its Human Resources processes, policies, practices, and guidelines to comply with this Policy.

We retain the flexibility to change this policy.

Chemours reserves the right to modify and update this policy or its related business practices at any time

If you are concerned about our use of your Personal Information, please contact us at Privacy-Office@chemours.com.
